PAYMENTS, CANCELLATION CONDITIONS

From 07.12.2020 our payment and cancellation policies regarding new applications are changing. By application, the participants accept the registration and cancellation policies. Upon registration and confirmation, the cost bearer will receive an advance payment request at their billing address, please ensure that the fee stated in the request is paid within the deadline. At the latest, 2 days before the course starts. This is to guarantee the place for the training courses. Cancellations will only be accepted in writing. Upon cancellation, we charge cancellation fees. There is a charge of 20% from the full price of the course. However, if the cancellation occurs 2 weeks before the course then the fee is 40% of the full price. If the cancellation takes place 2 days before the training course, the cost bearer has to retrieve the full price of the course. The registered attendants' attendance can be modified under certain conditions. We reserve the right to change the programmes and venues. For training courses that are not online, the cost of attendance includes the costs of catering and this will be stated separately on the receipt. The training courses cannot be recorded with audio or video recorders or record any online lessons. If you require more information, call our customer service team who are happy to oblige.
